

Knowledgebase > FGX Web Lite > My SSL Certificate is showing as Insecure. What does this mean and how would this affect my site? How can this be resolved?

My SSL Certificate is showing as Insecure. What does this mean and how would this affect my site? How can this be resolved?

rdavis@foregenix.com - 2020-05-14 - Comments (0) - FGX Web Lite

This means that communications between you and your customers could be compromised resulting in information being stolen. You can either update your certificate if it is out of date or replace it with a more secure one.

If you know you have a valid SSL certificate, but are still getting this message, it could be that it has been misconfigured. You should ask your web developers to investigate the cause of the alert as they should be able to remediate this issue.

Tags

Expired

guidance

High-Risk

Insecure

Security

SSL

WebScan Lite

website