

FOREGENIX

Portal > Knowledgebase > FGX Web Lite > What do the different Risk Categories mean?

What do the different Risk Categories mean?

rdavis@foregenix.com - 2020-05-14 - 0 Comments - in FGX Web Lite

Critical

The website has malware harvesting payment card data, or links to malicious domains known to be linked with payment card data theft.

High

The website is at high risk of being hacked. The site is most likely has one or more of the following:

- Missing critical framework security patches
- Has known framework vulnerabilities
- Security issues with website set up
- Non Card Harvesting Malware

Medium

Website is exposing information that could be used by hackers for malicious purposes

- Less critical framework patches missing
- SSL Certificate vulnerabilities
- Site redirection

Low

Sharing security information like server information and programming language.

Minimal

No risk detected

Tags

Categories

High-Risk

Low-Risk

Medium-Risk

Risk

Vulnerability

WebScan Lite